

Work in Germany for Nurses

Applications are invited for young nurses Registered Nurses and degree B.Sc. Nursing graduates who would like to live and work in Germany.

Workers will be able to obtain long term work permit before emigration to Germany, they can also apply for permanent residence in Germany or German nationality.

Nurses will be eligible for IHK (Industrie- und Handelskammer) or HWK (Hanse-Wissenschaftskolleg) and will be able to work in other enterprises with the IHK or HWK professional qualification certificate.

Requirements

- Age range is 18-45 years old.
- No gender limitation.
- No crime and visa rejection record.
- Holding the Level B1 and above language certificate of Goethe Institute. (Training program Available).

Salary Range

- During the initial 6 months to 1-year vocational training, 800-1200 Euros (slightly different in different states) every month
- After passing German Level B2 examination. The salary is between 3300-3500 Euros per month but may differ due to different shifts and states.
- Most of employees have 13-month salary (Christmas subsidy in December every year).
- All employees enjoy the paid annual leave of 24-30 days. The specific period is determined as per the leave standard in each state.

Our Services (Nigeria)

- Facilitation of German Language training and registration of German B1 language examination.
- Travel and emigration logistics support
- Securing long term work permit from partner institutions in Germany.

Upon arrival in Germany

- Airport pickup and arrangement of accommodation.
- Contacting German Language School so that nurses can immediately learn language after arriving in Germany.

- Arranging for the nurses to participate in the vocational training, before work posting in Germany, and communication between students and employers.
- Helping students to complete the authentication of German Certified Nursing Personnel and assisting in guiding students in German Visa processes.